Thank you for your generous support!

From the Pastor: Last week I wrote about the actions taken on the “Day without Latinos” in Wisconsin. While much of that action was focused upon effecting political change, many people of faith responded with compassion to be in solidarity with immigrants and other “displaced people.” Parish offices were close on that day. Many prayers and sacrifices were offered for the good of those who are vulnerable, afraid, and stressed out because of their immigration status.

Our Catholic faith, rooted in the long-standing teachings of our Judeo-Christian tradition, has always sought justice for the vulnerable, including the “alien stranger.” This is the language of the Bible. Jesus teaches that we are to follow the commandment to love our neighbor. Immigrants are our neighbors. See the following citation from Pope Francis:

“The Church is Mother, and her motherly attention is expressed with special tenderness and closeness to those who are obliged to flee their own country and exist between rootlessness and integration. This tension destroys people. Christian compassion—this ‘suffering with’ compassion—is expressed first of all in the commitment to obtain knowledge of the events that force people to leave their homeland, and where necessary, to give voice to those who cannot manage to make their cry of distress and oppression heard...They are all elements that dehumanize and must push every Christian and the whole community to concrete attention.” (Pope Francis in his Address to the Participants in the Plenary of the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People, May 24, 2013)

Furthermore, The Catholic Bishops of the United States and Mexico, in communion with the St. Pope John Paul II, in his 1996 World Migration Day message, affirm that:

In the Church no one is a stranger, and the Church is not foreign to anyone, anywhere. As a sacrament of unity and thus a sign and a binding force for the whole human race, the Church is the place where illegal [sic] immigrants are also recognized and accepted as brothers and sisters. It is the task of the various Dioceses actively to ensure that these people, who are obliged to live outside the safety net of civil society, may find a sense of brotherhood in the Christian community. Solidarity means taking responsibility for those in trouble.

I think that it is important to repeat that when people are seeking justice and compassion the Church must act because of the commandment of love. This is necessary even to the point of taking actions which touch the political arena. Peace, Fr. Andy

World's Poor Collection March 05-06, 2016

Next week our parish will take up the Collection for the World's Poor. The 3 agencies represented in this collection are official church agencies that work to help the poor and disabled, help themselves out of poverty.

The Campaign for Human Development was founded to end the cycle of poverty throughout America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. CCHD's grants go to improving education, housing situations, and community economic development in low income neighborhoods. Your contribution will defend human dignity and reach out to those marginalized.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection funds six Catholic Agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world. The funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people.

The Peter's Pence Collection provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable work around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.

Next week please give generously to this collection and help Jesus in disguise!

Mensaje de nuestro Párroco: La semana pasada escribí acerca de las acciones tomadas durante el “Día sin Latinos” en Wisconsin. Aunque muchas de esas acciones tenían un enfoque de crear un efecto hacia un cambio político, mucha gente de fe respondieron con compasión para demostrar su solidaridad con los emigrantes y otras “personas desplazadas.” La oficina parroquial estuvo cerrada ese día. Muchas oraciones y sacrificios fueron ofrecidos por el bien de tanta gente vulnerable, temerosa, y estresada a causa de su estatus migratorio.

Nuestra fe católica, raizada en las enseñanzas de la tradición Judeo-Cristiana desde tiempos inmemoriales, siempre ha buscado la justicia para el vulnerable, incluyendo al “extranjero.” Esto es lenguaje bíblico. Jesucristo nos enseña que debemos de cumplir el mandamiento de amar al prójimo. Los inmigrantes son nuestros prójimos. Vean la siguiente cita de Papa Francisco:

“La Iglesia es madre, y su atención materna se manifiesta con particular ternura y cercanía a quien está obligado a escapar de su país y vive entre el desarraigo y la integración. Esta tensión destruye a las personas. La compasión cristiana —este «sufrir con», con-pasión— se expresa ante todo mediante el compromiso de conocer los hechos que impulsan a dejar forzadamente la patria, y, donde es necesario, haciéndose intérprete de quien no logra hacer oír el grito de dolor y opresión... Todos estos elementos deshumanizan y deben impulsar a cada cristiano y a toda la comunidad hacia una atención concreta.”

(Discurso Del Santo Padre Francisco, A Los Participantes En La Plenaria Del Consejo Pontificio De Los Emigrantes E Itinerantes Sala Clementina, Viernes 24 de mayo de 2013)

Además, los Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos y México, en comunión con el Santo Papa Juan Pablo II, en su mensaje para la Jornada Mundial del Emigrante - 1996, afirman:

“En la Iglesia nadie es extranjero, y la Iglesia no es extranjera para ningún hombre y en ningún lugar. Como sacramento de unidad y, por tanto, como signo y fuerza de agregación de todo el género humano, la Iglesia es el lugar donde también los emigrantes ilegales son reconocidos y acogidos como hermanos. Corresponde a las diversas diócesis movilizarse para que esas personas, obligadas a vivir fuera de la red de protección de la sociedad civil, encuentren un sentido de fraternidad en la comunidad cristiana. La solidaridad es asunción de responsabilidad ante quien se halla en dificultad.”

Creo que es importante repetir, que cuando la gente busca justicia y compasión, la Iglesia debe actuar en respuesta al mandamiento de amor. Esto es necesario hasta tal punto de tomar acciones que caen dentro de la arena política.

Paz, Fr. Andy

Colecta para los Pobres del Mundo Marzo 05-06, 2016

La siguiente semana nuestra parroquia llevará a cabo la Colecta para los Pobres del Mundo. Las tres agencias representadas en esta colecta son agencias oficiales de la iglesia que trabajan para ayudar a los pobres y minusválidos a ayudarse a sí mismos a salir de esa pobreza.

La Campaña por el Desarrollo Humano fue fundada para terminar con el ciclo de pobreza en todo Estados Unidos fundando organizaciones que ayudan a individuos a superarse. Esta campaña otorga becas para mejorar la educación, vivienda, y da apoyo para el desarrollo económico de vecindarios de comunidades de bajos ingresos. Su contribución ayuda a defender la dignidad humana y dar ayuda a los marginados.

La Colecta para Servicios Católicos de Auxilio provee fondos para 6 Agencias Católicas que llegan a mas de 100 millones de personas en todo el mundo. Los fondos de esta colecta nos ayudan a proveer comida para el hambriento, apoyo a los refugiados desplazados, y a llevar el amor y respeto de Jesucristo a los necesitados.

La Colecta Peter's Pence provee a Papa Francisco los fondos necesarios para llevar a cabo su trabajo caritativo por todo el mundo. Lo recaudado beneficia a nuestros hermanos y hermanas el los márgenes de la sociedad, incluyendo a las victimas de guerra, oprimidos, desastres naturales, y otras necesidades.

¡La semana que entra por favor den generosamente y ayuden a Jesucristo !

MISAS DE UNCIÓN

Rostros de la Misericordia de Dios... Los encontramos en el Ministerio de Cuidado Pastoral

Los ministros de cuidado pastoral están capacitados para escuchar, apoyar y rezar con aquellos que necesitan algo de compasión. Estos voluntarios responden a las necesidades espirituales y emocionales de los que están de luto, hospitalizados, desahuciados, y los confinados al hogar.

Su donativo a la Colecta del Obispo ayuda a que los ministros de cuidado pastoral reciban la capacitación necesaria para cuidar de las almas del que esta triste y solitario.

Por favor hagan su donativo ¡hoy!
