Thank you for your generous gifts! God Bless You!

From the Pastor: Happy Easter! Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia! He is Risen, indeed! Alleluia!

I see the images of Holy Saturday and the Easter Vigil. The new fire entered the church with great drama and effect. The sounds of “chaos” came from the piano. The Easter candle was blessed and lit. The church glowed with the hundreds of candles that we lit from the Paschal candle. Then a great number of children and adults were baptized, confirmed and given first communion. The church was full of family, friends, god-parents, and parishioners. I will remember these images for a long time. I hope those who participated will remember as well.

The next day the church was filled several times as we celebrated Easter Sunday at the 6 Masses. The first four Masses were full, to the point of standing room only! There, in the full light of day, we could see and smell the beautiful flowers, and see the Risen Christ. We felt the waters of the baptismal font after we renewed our promises. Easter is a multi-sense experience.

Of course, most of all, I appreciated the calm in my heart and soul. What a great gift we have been given – forgiveness of sin, salvation, and eternal life! All I can say is ALLELUIA! - Peace, Fr. Andy

Thank you so very much!

This note is to express my deepest gratitude for everyone's help and participation at the various events in our parish during Holy Week and Easter Sunday. Each and all events were carried out successfully thanks to the support and kindness each of you brought forward in completing the many tasks to be fulfilled during this time. Thank you to all ministers, volunteers, parishioners, visitors, staff, and all who participated in one way or another; in doing so, you have given witness to the active love and mercy we are called to live as Christians and as children of the light. God bless you all! - Fr. Andy ¡Muchísimas Gracias!

Esta nota es para expresarles mi mas profundo agradecimiento a todos por su ayuda y participación en los eventos durante la Semana Santa y Domingo de Pascua. Todos y cada uno de los eventos se llevaron a cabo exitosamente gracias al apoyo y bondad que ustedes demostraron al desempeñar tantas tareas durante estos días. Gracias a todos los ministros, voluntarios, parroquianos, visitantes, al personal parroquial y a todos los que de alguna manera u otra participaron. Con su participación han dado testimonio del amor activo y la misericordia que estamos llamados a vivir como Cristianos y como hijos de la luz. Dios los bendiga. - Fr. Andy Mensaje de Nuestro Párroco: ¡Felices Pascuas! ¡Jesucristo ha resucitado! ¡En verdad resucito! ¡Aleluya! Aun están vivas las imágenes del Sábado de Gloria y la Vigilia Pascual. El nuevo fuego entro a la iglesia con gran drama y efecto. Los sonidos del “caos” venían del piano. El Cirio Pascual fue bendecido y encendido. La iglesia radiaba con los cientos de velas que encendimos con el fuego del cirio Pascual. Después, un gran número de niños y adultos fueron bautizados, confirmados y recibieron su primera comunión. La iglesia estaba llena de familias, amigos, padrinos, madrinan, y parroquianos. Yo estas imágenes quedaran grabadas en mi por mucho tiempo. Espero que esto sea igual para todos aquellos que participaron.

Al siguiente día la iglesia se llenó durante las 6 Misas que celebramos del Domingo de Pascua. ¡Las primeras cuatro Misas se llenaron completamente y había gente de pie! A plena luz del día, pudimos ver y oler las bellas flores, y al ¡Cristo Resucitado! Fuimos rociados con las aguas de la fuente bautismal después de renovar nuestras promesas. La Pascua la experimentamos a través de todos nuestros sentidos.

Pero lo que más aprecio de todo esto es la calma en mi alma y mi corazón. Que gran regalo se nos ha dado – el perdón de nuestros pecados, la salvación, y la vida eterna. Todo lo que puedo decir es ¡ALELUYA! - Paz, Pr. Andy
