HOSPITALITY HELPERS NEEDED...

Are you interested in helping to create a welcoming experience for someone at the 9:00 am Sunday Mass???

We are looking for someone for the 3rd Sunday of the month to help with hospitality... Anyone interested or if you have questions please call Barb L. at 437-5958.

From the Pastor: The on-going conflict in Afghanistan and Iraq seems so distant and never-ending. We may feel overwhelmed when we hear about and see the violence and the number of lives that have been lost.

Recently, the conflicts in the Middle East came to a violent crescendo. Between December 27 and January 8, the United States and Iran traded attacks. First, a U.S. contractor was killed in Iraq. The U.S. struck back with missile attacks in Syria and Iraq, killing 25. Then there were violent protests at the U.S. Embassy in Bagdad. Next, the U.S. bombed and killed an Iranian general and 10 members of his travel group. The general was long-suspected of organizing terrorist attacks against the U.S. and its allies. That killing led to retaliation from Iran as they launched missiles at a U.S. military base. Then, in the confusion of the attack, a commercial airplane carrying 176 people was shot down and all passengers were killed. I wanted to shout, "Stop! This is crazy!"

How ought we to evaluate the necessity and justification of military actions? The Church has formulated a traditional set of principles by which the justification of war is to be measured. Here are the six principles: 1. The war must be for a just cause. 2. The war must be lawfully declared by a lawful authority. 3. The intention behind the war must be good. 4. All other ways of resolving the problem should have been tried first. 5. There must be a reasonable chance of success. 6. The means used must be in proportion to the end that the war seeks to achieve. (All six conditions must be met).

The Church goes further setting principles for how a war ought to be fought. These principles are as follows: 1. Innocent people and non-combatants should not be harmed. 2. Only appropriate force should be used. 3. This applies to both the sort of force, and how much force is used. 4. Internationally agreed conventions regulating war must be obeyed.

You may read the above principles and ask how it is ever possible to fight a war. Exactly! It should be difficult to arrive at a justification for war, or for any attack on another.

A quote from Pope Francis: "We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried. ... But our efforts have been in vain. Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say: 'Never again war!'; 'With war everything is lost.' -- Invo-cation for Peace, held with Presidents Shimon Peres of Israel and Mahmoud Abbas of Palestine, Vatican Gardens, June 9, 2014.

Peace, Fr. Andy

Mensaje de nuestro Pastor: El conflicto de Afganistán e Irak que continua parece tan distante e interminable. Podemos sentirnos abrumados cuando escuchamos y vemos la violencia y la cantidad de vidas que se han perdido.

Recientemente, los conflictos en el Medio Oriente llegaron a un punto violento. Entre el 27 de diciembre y el 8 de enero, Estados Unidos e Irán intercambiaron ataques. Primero, un contratista estadounidense fue asesinado en Irak. Estados Unidos respondió con un ataque de misiles en Siria e Irak, matando a 25. Luego hubo protestas violentas en la Embajada de los Estados Unidos localizada en Bagdad. Luego, Estados Unidos bombardeó y mató a un general iraní y a 10 miembros de su grupo que viajaban con él. Se sospechaba desde hace mucho tiempo que el general era el responsable de organizar ataques terroristas contra los EE. UU. Y sus aliados. Ese asesinato provocó represalias de Irán cuando lanzaron misiles contra una base militar de EE. UU. Luego, en la confusión del ataque, un avión comercial que transportaba a 176 personas fue derribado y todos los pasajeros murieron. Yo quería gritar: "¡Alto! ¡Esto es una locura!"

¿Cómo debemos evaluar la necesidad y la justificación de las acciones militares? La Iglesia ha formulado un conjunto de principios por los cuales debe medirse la justificación de la guerra. Aquí están los seis principios: 1. La guerra debe ser por una causa justa. 2. La guerra debe ser declarada legalmente por una autoridad legal. 3. La intención detrás de la guerra debe ser buena. 4. Todas las otras formas de resolver el problema deberán haberse tratado primero. 5. Debe haber una posibilidad razonable de éxito. 6. Los medios utilizados deben ser proporcionales al fin que la guerra busca alcanzar. (Se deben cumplir las seis condiciones).

La Iglesia va más allá estableciendo principios sobre cómo se debe pelear una guerra. Estos principios son los siguientes: 1. Las personas inocentes y los no combatientes no deben ser perjudicados. 2. Solo se debe usar la fuerza apropiada. 3. Esto se aplica tanto al tipo de fuerza como a la cantidad de fuerza utilizada. 4. Las convenciones acordadas internacionalmente que regulan la guerra deben ser obedecidas.

Después de leer los principios anteriores y puede preguntarse cómo es posible pelear una guerra. ¡Exactamente! Debería ser difícil llegar a una justificación para tener una guerra, o para cualquier otro ataque.

Cita del Papa Francisco: "Hemos intentado muchas veces y durante muchos años resolver nuestros conflictos con nuestras fuerzas, y también con nuestras armas; tantos momentos de hostilidad y de oscuridad; tanta sangre derramada; tantas vidas destrozadas; tantas esperanzas abatidas... Pero nuestros esfuerzos han sido en vano. Ahora, Señor, ayúdanos tú. Danos tú la paz, enséñanos tú la paz, guíanos tú hacia la paz. Abre nuestros ojos y nuestros corazones, y danos la valentía para decir: "¡Nunca más la guerra!"; 'con la guerra, todo queda destruido'". Invocación Por La Paz con los Presidentes Shimon Peres de Israel y Mahmoud Abbas de Palestina, Jardines Vaticanos Domingo, 8 De Junio de 2014.

Paz, Pr. Andy

“¿Quién puede considerarse digno de acercarse al ministerio sacerdotal? ¿Quién puede abrazar la vida consagrada confiando solo en sus propios poderes humanos? Una respuesta humana emblemática, llena de confianza en la iniciativa de Dios, es el "Amén" generoso e incondicional de la Virgen de Nazaret, pronunciado con una adhesión humilde y decisiva al plan del Altísimo anunciado por el mensajero de Dios. Su decisivo "Si!" le permitió convertirse en la Madre de Dios, la Madre de nuestro Salvador".
