From the Pastor: Since our celebration of Christmas, the Gospels show that Jesus has matured. He has reached a point at which he makes a decisive life-change. The Gospel writers tell us of his encounter with John the Baptist and his baptism, followed by a lengthy retreat for prayer and fasting. Then, Jesus emerges from his retreat and after hearing of John's imprisonment, he invites others to follow him. He makes a significant change to John's preaching of repentance and calls for repentance BECAUSE the Kingdom of God is near!

Jesus' public ministry is about three years. In that relatively short time Jesus has a tremendous influence on a great number of people. His power to heal infirmity and relieve people of sin and stress had a great impact on the people.

Sometimes believers become trapped when they see the miracles Jesus performs. They say: "Look what Jesus did! Is this not wonderful?" But, Jesus wanted more than to be admired. He healed the people and preached his message to those who already had faith. He wanted others to recognize God. He wanted others to listen to what he preached and to live it. Jesus was the God-man who was oriented toward life. He wanted us to have life, and have it in fullness!

Also, it is important to see who Jesus healed and to whom he preached his message. Among those he healed were disabled beggars who stayed near busy streets and roads. These beggars were well-known. Many people considered them to be sinners who deserved their disease and pain. Jesus shows everyone that God wants them to have life.

He also healed many others who came to him. These persons included the poor, the outcast, and those who lived with great difficulty in a society that saw their poverty as a curse for their sins. Jesus speaks to them, affirms their dignity, and reminds everyone that he has come into the world for the sick, the sinner, and the poor.

The Kingdom of God is near, and Jesus is the extraordinary king. He does not want title, or status, or honor as a worldly king. He wants all to see that no one is beyond the boundaries of his Kingdom. Forgiveness, mercy, life, and blessedness are found in his Kingdom. Such blessings are not exclusive to the rich, the powerful, the educated, etc.

Everyone, repent! Everyone, enjoy the blessings of God's kingdom!

Peace, Fr. Andy

Do you know a struggling couple? – Asking for help is hard. Couples who are experiencing pain and suffering in their relationships might think their marriages are doomed to fail, and there's no point in continuing to try.

Lakeshore Retrouvaille can change that! If you know of a friend, family member, neighbor or co-worker who might benefit from our marriage ministry, please let them know that our marriage-saving program is starting again with a retreat weekend...

Mensaje de nuestro Pastor: Desde que celebramos Navidad, el Evangelio nos demuestra como Jesús a madurado. Él a llegado a un punto en su vida donde hace una decisión que cambiara su vida. Los escritores del Evangelio nos cuentan su encuentro con Juan el Bautista y su bautismo, seguido de un largo retiro para orar y ayunar. Luego, Jesús emerge de su retiro y después de enterarse del encarcelamiento de Juan, invita a otros a seguirlo. Él hace un cambio significativo en la manera que Juan predica acerca del arrepentimiento y llama a que se arrepentían ¡PORQUE el Reino de Dios está cerca!

El ministerio público de Jesús dura aproximadamente tres años. En ese tiempo relativamente corto, Jesús ejerce una influencia tremenda en un gran número de personas. Su poder para sanar enfermedades y aliviar a las personas del pecado y el estrés tuvo un gran impacto en las personas.

Algunas veces los creyentes quedan atrapados cuando ven los milagros que Jesús realiza. Dicen: “¡Mira lo que hizo Jesús! ¿No es maravilloso?” Pero, Jesús quería más que ser admirado. Sanó a la gente y predicó su mensaje a aquellos que ya tenían fe. Quería que otros reconocieran a Dios. Quería que otros escucharan lo que predicaba y lo vivieran. Jesús era el Dios-hombre y su orientación era hacia la vida. ¡Él quería que tuviéramos vida, y que la tuviéramos en plenitud! Además, es importante ver a quién sanó Jesús y a quién predicó su mensaje. Entre los que curó se encontraban mendigos discapacitados que se quedaban cerca de calles y carreteras muy transitadas. Estos mendigos eran bien conocidos. Muchas personas los consideraban pecadores que merecían su enfermedad y dolor. Jesús muestra a todos que Dios quiere que tengan vida.

También curó a muchos otros que vinieron a él. Estas personas incluían a los pobres, los marginados y aquellos que vivían con gran dificultad en una sociedad que veía su pobreza como una maldición por sus pecados. Jesús les habla, afirma su dignidad y les recuerda a todos que ha venido al mundo por los enfermos, los pecadores y los pobres.

El Reino de Dios está cerca, y Jesús es el rey extraordinario. Él no quiere el título, el estatus o el honor como rey mundano. Él quiere que todos vean que nadie está más allá de los límites de su Reino. El perdón, la misericordia, la vida y la bendición se encuentran en su Reino. Tales bendiciones no son exclusivas para los ricos, los poderosos, los educados, etc.

¡Todos, arrepíntanse! ¡Todos, disfruten las bendiciones del reino de Dios!

Paz, Pr. Andy

“¿Quién puede considerarse digno de acercarse al ministerio sacerdotal? ¿Quién puede abrazar la vida consagrada confiando solo en sus propios poderes humanos? Una respuesta humana emblemática, llena de confianza en la iniciativa de Dios, es el "Amén" generoso e incondicional de la Virgen de Nazaret, pronunciado con una adhesión humilde y decisiva al plan del Altísimo anunciado por el mensajero de Dios. Su decisivo "Sí!" le permitió convertirse en la Madre de Dios, la Madre de nuestro Salvador".
