From the Pastor: Last weekend, June 6-7, I had two opportunities to get involved and be present at rallies, i.e. “protests,” for racial justice, and against police and societal violence and racism. I watched peaceful young people speak on Saturday, June 6, in front of the police station. A high school student, a teacher from Milwaukee who was also a man of faith, a young white mother, and others spoke with passion about their desire for change. Notably, they did not speak against anybody. They spoke positively about their hopes for themselves, for others, especially racial minorities, and for the next generation. While I was there, Police Chief Andrew Smith quietly greeted me. He did not want to distract from the moment and withdrew to the station entrance. I walked with the group back to City Hall with another parishioner, a white man, who hoped for change, too.

Then on Sunday, June 7, in the midst of distributing Communion around 12:45 p.m., I heard the shouts of the marching crowd that passed our parish on Jefferson Street. When I finished praying with the group of communicants, I walked to the Jefferson St. side of the parking lot and went to one knee as the crowd moved past. They moved fast, I thought, and many called out to me saying: “Thanks for being here, Father,” and shouting “Black Lives Matter!” and other slogans. I replied to as many as I could with, “Peace, God is blessing us.” I remained on my knee until the last two women passed with their signs, some distance behind the main group. They, too, thanked me as I offered “peace.”

Being present and standing with the young people on Saturday, and kneeling as the crowd passed on Sunday, felt Eucharistic. If unity, peace, and reconciliation are the effects of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, then that is what I wanted to convey and to experience. I would say Eucharist happened on the streets of Green Bay this weekend. The Body of Christ was visible.

Peace, Fr. Andy

Wednesday Faith Formation

From: Coordinator Lupita Dorado:

First of all I want to say that our teachers and I really miss you. We miss seeing you weekly and we hope that you all are staying safe. It is a time with many uncertainties, but it is also a time in which we can take advantage of and strengthen our relationship with God. To those students who are in preparation of a sacrament, First Communion or Confirmation, I want you to know that you will receive your sacrament as soon as it is safe for us to gather. Things will be different, and they will feel different, but the essence and joy of the Sacrament will remain, and I actually think it will be greater!

As of now, there is no set date for First Communion or Confirmation but as soon as we enter phase 2 of the reopening process, we will be able to determine a date.

FIRST COMMUNION: First thing that will happen once we enter phase 2 is First Reconciliation. We will have 2 dates in which Fr Andy will be available for confessions. I will be calling you all to let you know when this will happen.

Then Fr. Andy and I will decide on a date for First Communion and communicate it with you all.

In the meantime, please email me your child's baptismal certificates if they were baptized anywhere else other than St. Willebrord. If they were baptized here, then please email me the approximate date.

CONFIRMATION: The confirmation retreat is cancelled and will not be rescheduled.

Bishop Ricken has authorized priests to confirm, therefore once it is safe, we will communicate with you the new date for Confirmation. It will not be June 4th as originally planned and I cannot give an approximate date since things change so quickly so often.

All I can do for now is say "Thank you!" for your patience and encourage you to be attentive to Fr. Andy's announcements after our Live Masses and the bulletin for more information.

Amy and I are staying in touch with students via email and have already communicated with them the 2 things we need from them before June 13th: their letter to the Bishop requesting the Sacrament of Confirmation and their Sponsor booklet. Please talk to you son/daughter to see if they yet need any of these tasks completed.

Any other questions please call me at the parish and leave a voicemail. I will return your call as soon as I am able to or for faster communication email me at guadalupe@stwillys.org.

Formación de la Fe en Ingles de los Miércoles

Mensaje de la Coordinadora Lupita Dorado:

Antes que nada quiero decir que nuestros maestros y yo realmente los extrañamos. Extrañamos verlos semanalmente y esperamos que todos estén sanos. Es un momento con muchas incertidumbres, pero también es un momento en el que podemos aprovechar y fortalecer nuestra relación con Dios.

Para aquellos estudiantes que se están preparando para recibir su sacramento de primera comunión o confirmación, quiero que sepan que recibirán su sacramento tan pronto como sea seguro para nosotros reunirnos. Las cosas serán diferentes y se sentirán diferentes, pero la esencia y la alegría del Sacramento permanecerán, ¡y en realidad creo que será mayor!

A partir de ahora, no hay una fecha establecida para las Primeras Comuniones o la Confirmación, pero tan pronto como ingresemos a la fase 2 de esta situación, podremos determinar una fecha.

PRIMERA COMUNIÓN: Lo primero que sucederá una vez que ingresemos a la fase 2 es la Primera Reconciliación. Tendremos 2 fechas en las que el Padre Andy estará disponible para confesar. Los llamaré a todos para informarles cuándo sucederá esto.

El Padre Andy y yo decidiremos una fecha para las Primeras Comuniones y nos comunicaremos con todos ustedes.

Mientras tanto, envíeme un correo electrónico con los certificados de bautismo de su hijo(a) si fueron bautizados en otro lugar que no sea St. Willebrord. Si fueron bautizados aquí, envíeme un correo electrónico con la fecha aproximada.

CONFIRMACIÓN: El retiro de confirmación se cancela y no se reprogramará.

El Obispo Ricken ha autorizado a los sacerdotes para confirmar, por lo tanto, una vez que sea seguro, nos comunicaremos con ustedes la nueva fecha para la Confirmación. No será el 4 de junio como se planeó originalmente y no puedo dar una fecha aproximada ya que las cosas cambian tan rápido tan a menudo.

Todo lo que puedo hacer es decir "Gracias!" por su paciencia y los invite a estar atentos a los anuncios del Padre Andy después de nuestras misas en vivo por Facebook y el boletín para obtener más información.

Amy y yo nos mantendremos en contacto con los estudiantes por correo electrónico y ya les hemos comunicado las dos cosas que necesitamos de ellos antes del 13 de junio: su carta al Obispo solicitando el Sacramento de la Confirmación y su folleto del Padrino(s). Hable con su hijo(a) para ver si aún necesitan completar alguna de estas tareas.

Cualquier otra pregunta por favor llámeme a la parroquia y deje un mensaje de voz. Le devolveré la llamada tan pronto como pueda o para una comunicación más rápida envíeme un correo electrónico a guadalupe@stwillys.org.

Mensaje de Nuestro Pastor: El fin de semana pasado, el 6 y 7 de junio, tuve dos oportunidades de involucrarme y estar presente en manifestaciones, o "protestas", por la justicia racial y contra la violencia policial, social y el racismo. Pude escuchar los testimonios de jóvenes pacíficos el sábado 6 de junio frente a la comisaría. Un estudiante de secundaria, un maestro de Milwaukee que también era un hombre de fe, una madre joven blanca y otros mas hablaron con pasión sobre su deseo de ver un cambio. No hablaron en contra de nadie en particular. Hablaron positivamente sobre sus esperanzas para sí mismos, para otros, pero en especialmente para las minorías y para la próxima generación. Mientras estaba allí, el jefe de policía Andrew Smith me saludó en silencio. No quería distraerse del momento y se retiró a la entrada de la estación. Caminé con el grupo de regreso a la Municipalidad de Green Bay con otro participante, que era un hombre blanco, que también espera un cambio.

Luego, el domingo 7 de junio, en medio de la distribución de la Comunión alrededor de las 12:45 p.m., escuché los gritos de la multitud que marchaba y pasaban por nuestra parroquia en la calle Jefferson. Cuando terminé de orar con el grupo de comunicantes, caminé hacia el lado de Jefferson St. del estacionamiento y me arrodillé mientras la multitud pasaba. Caminaban rápidamente, pensé yo, y muchos me decían: "Gracias por estar aquí, Padre", y gritando "¡Las vidas negras importan!" y otros eslóganes. Le respondí a tantos como pude con: "Paz, Dios nos está bendiciendo". Me quedé de rodillas hasta que las dos últimas mujeres pasaron con sus cartelones, a cierta distancia detrás del grupo principal. Ellos también me agradecieron al ofrecerles la "paz".

Estar presente y de pie con los jóvenes el sábado, y arrodillarme mientras la multitud pasaba el domingo, se sintió eucarístico. Si la unidad, la paz y la reconciliación son los efectos del sacramento de la Eucaristía, eso es lo que quería transmitir y experimentar. Yo diría que la Eucaristía tomo vida en las calles de Green Bay este fin de semana. El Cuerpo de Cristo era visible.
