Message from Fr. Andy: In the coming weeks of July, I have a couple of weddings for nephews and their brides. One nephew will be married in Appleton, and the other in Michigan, not far from Ann Arbor. I will not to be gone for long for the Appleton wedding, just Saturday, July 16. The Michigan wedding will require me to be gone the whole weekend of July 30-31. Only 15 nieces and nephews remain!

Those who preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage remind me that they are fulfilling a special vocation. Marriage is not a possession of two people, as if it is a private thing. When two people marry in the Church, they are promising to share the love of God with others. The abundant gift of God’s love is not to be kept for themselves, but rather, given away. Children, community service, church ministry, works of charity, and, of course, the love they share with each other, are all ways by which the couple share God’s rich love. Moreover, each day God renews that love as an unending gift.

Married couples who read the above description may recognize it and smile. Others may wish that they would experience more of this dynamic. And for others, the eternally renewed gift of God’s love has been elusive, for many reasons. Some reasons may include their own failure to see marriage as an act of generosity; or, the lack of maturity of the couple; or, a failure to cultivate a relationship with God and with the community of faith; or, being overwhelmed by worldly goals and material desires; or, the attempt to imitate other married couples who have no faith in God, instead of modeling their lives on Jesus, the Christ, etc.

I think that it is difficult to live a successful Sacrament of married love in marriage. Loving your neighbor as yourself is not easy! Loving one another as Jesus loved us, is not easy! However, it is not God who makes it difficult to live a good and faithful Christ-like life. We make it hard on ourselves. We cannot blame God for our human failures, for our unwillingness to love and to convert from former ways.

Married life is intense. It is a profound expression of God’s love in us. We must respond with appropriate intensity! Married love is meant to grow, to evolve, adjust and advance. The vowed commitments that a couple make in their marriage vows are not a one-time promise. Those vows express a response to the dynamic love of God. The wife and husband must be dynamic in their love for each other and the world around them.

God’s love is abundant. May we see that love in married couples. May married couples share God’s love!

Peace, Fr. Andy

YOU SHALL LOVE
THE LORD, YOUR GOD,
WITH ALL YOUR HEART . . .
AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.

LUKE 10:27

FIFTEENTH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JULY 10, 2022

What does it mean to love God with all our heart, being, strength, and mind? We turn our hearts to God in prayer, quiet moments of reflection, and participation in the Mass and sacraments. Our whole being may turn to the Lord in trust in the midst of troubled times or when we need courage. We find strength to live as Christ's people, even when faced with the questions, doubts, and derision of others. We may turn to the Lord with our mind as we prayerfully read sacred scripture and learn more fully the teaching of the Church. All of these things point to a singular desire to know God deeply. The love we have for God is, after all, a reflection of the great love God has for each of us.

LOVE NEIGHBOR

Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan points to the impact our love of God is to have in our lives. The priest and Levite were more concerned with observing the letter of the law rather than living its essence. The Samaritan found himself unable to pass by without coming to the traveler's aid. Who are the travelers whom we meet? What is our response? Are we so filled with the love of God that we cannot ignore the suffering of hunger or homelessness, the needs of the lonely and sick? Loving God necessitates loving our neighbor. We cannot have one without the other. Jesus shows us that the love we are to share is selfless, sacrificial. The Samaritan not only cared for the traveler's wounds, but took him to find shelter and paid for his care. He went the extra mile on the journey of faith. Who is your neighbor today? How will you love him or her?

Today's Readings: Dt 30:10-14; Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37 or Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11; Col 1:15-20; Lk 10:25-37

PETICIONES

¡IMPORTANTE! Intenciones para las misas!!

Si usted desea pedir una intención de Misa, por favor planee con anticipación!

Paso 1: Llame a la oficina parroquial con anticipación e infórmenos de la fecha, la hora, el nombre de la persona a la que están destinadas las oraciones, el propósito de la intención (por ejemplo: recordar a los difuntos, la recuperación de los enfermos, acción de gracias por aniversario de bodas o cumpleaños, etc.), y quién esta ofreciendo la misa.

Paso 2: En si, no hay costo por una intención de misa, pero muchas personas donan $10 a la parroquia. Hay sobres disponibles para tales donaciones.

Nos gustaría evitar las peticiones que llegan sólo unos minutos antes de que comience la misa. Esto puede ser difícil para los ministros y no queremos cometer errores causados por limitaciones de tiempo.

Gracias por su cooperación.

Mensaje del P. Andy: En las próximas semanas de julio, tengo un par de bodas para sobrinos y sus prometidas. Un sobrino se casará en Appleton, y el otro en Michigan, no lejos de Ann Arbor. No me iré por mucho tiempo para la boda de Appleton, solamente el sábado 16 de julio. La boda de Michigan requerirá que me vaya todo el fin de semana del 30 al 31 de julio. ¡Solo quedan 15 sobrinas y sobrinos!

Aquellos que se preparan para el Sacramento del Matrimonio me recuerdan que están cumpliendo una vocación especial. El matrimonio no es una posesión de dos personas, como si fuera algo privado. Cuando dos personas se casan en la Iglesia, prometen compartir el amor de Dios con los demás. El don abundante del amor de Dios no debe ser guardado para sí mismos, sino más bien, regalado. Teniendo hijos, el servicio comunitario, el ministerio de la iglesia, las obras de caridad y, por supuesto, el amor que comparten entre sí, son todas formas en que la pareja comparte el amor abundante de Dios. Además, cada día Dios renueva ese amor como un don sin fin.

Las parejas casadas que leen la descripción anterior pueden reconocerlo y sonreír. Otros pueden desear experimentar más de esta dinámica. Y para otros, el don eternamente renovado del amor de Dios ha sido difícil de alcanzar, por muchas razones. Algunas razones pueden incluir su propio fracaso en ver el matrimonio como un acto de generosidad; o, la falta de madurez de la pareja; o, la falta de cultivar una relación con Dios y con la comunidad de fe; o, sentirse abrumado por las metas mundanas y los deseos materiales; o, el intento de imitar a otras parejas casadas que no tienen fe en Dios, en lugar de modelar sus vidas siguiendo a Jesús, el Cristo, etc.

Creo que es difícil vivir un sacramento exitoso del amor conyugal en el matrimonio. ¡Amar a tu prójimo como a ti mismo no es fácil! ¡Amarnos unos a otros como Jesús nos amó, no es fácil! Sin embargo, no es Dios quien hace que sea difícil vivir una vida buena y fiel como la de Cristo. Nos lo ponemos difícil nosotros mismos. No podemos culpar a Dios por nuestros fracasos humanos, por nuestra falta de voluntad para amar y convertirnos de caminos anteriores.

La vida matrimonial es intensa. Es una expresión profunda del amor de Dios en nosotros. ¡Debemos responder con la intensidad adecuada! El amor conyugal está destinado a crecer, a evolucionar, ajustarse y avanzar. Los compromisos prometidos que una pareja hace en sus votos matrimoniales no son una promesa de una sola vez. Esos votos expresan una respuesta al amor dinámico de Dios. La esposa y el esposo deben ser dinámicos en su amor mutuo y por el mundo que los rodea.

El amor de Dios es abundante. Que veamos ese amor en las parejas casadas. ¡Que las parejas casadas compartan el amor de Dios!

Paz, P. Andy
